

Snow guns

Tap connection ready for connection

- For fully automatic and manually operated snow making equipment
- The connection of the snow maker, the water, the power cable and the memory cable is secured without opening of the hood (cover) or a manhole.
- The fittings are frost-proof by thermal regulated heaters.

- Telescope for water- and air connection easily to be operated
- In summer, counter-sunk, sure-footed and not interfering with the natural scenery.
- The hydrant is also suitable to keep dry high pressure hoses, electro cables or other auxiliary materials.

- This hydrant is pre-mounted with all necessary components and fittings, this to ensure a simple transport and installation.
- The complete unit can be padlocked of destruction by vandals.

Conventional tap connection

- Standard concrete inspection point with water- and electrical connection, manually operated
- Insulated corrosion-resistant electrical connection with connection for service and inspection.

- For the installation a bad to seep away the water of crushed rocks is recommended in order to secure the leakage of the water.

Further high quality products for snow guns

Proflex cabel Gifas

The cable support sleeve is made of mechanical extremely high resilient Polychloropren. The assembly of the power supply line guaranties high flexibility, an excellent resistance to atmospheric attack, to ozone, to oil, to grease, to alkali-resistant as well as a high thermal stress. The current can permanently be used under water.

Gifas hard rubber socket outlets complete the entire supply of electric components for high mechanical and weatherproof claims.